NOTIFICATION

No.6.9/MAKAUT/Regis./Ntc.End.sem/2021

Dated: 9.6.2021

It is being hereby notified for all concerned that in partial modification of the previous decision, the holding of the end semester examination of the outgoing students studying in the final year (end semester), is being rescheduled taking into consideration the concern of the students for betterment of their future, particularly to help them become eligible for higher studies within the country and abroad considering the present pandemic condition arising out of Covid-19.

Accordingly, end semester examinations for the above mentioned students will be held in the month of July, 2021 and results will also be published within the month (July, 2021) only. Necessary follow-up notice, on behalf of the Controller of Examinations, is being issued intimating the details of holding the examinations.

All concerned are requested to extend their utmost cooperation in this regard. This notice is being issued with the approval from the Competent Authorities.
